GAY MEN'S CHORUS OF WASHINGTON, DC

Now in its 30th season, the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC is at the forefront of the gay and lesbian choral movement, continuing its mission to "entertain through excellent musical performance, to affirm the place of gay people in society and to educate about the gay experience."

Founded in 1981, GMCW quickly became a staple of the Washington choral music scene. Over the years, GMCW has performed at the Kennedy Center, the National Theatre, the Warner Theatre, Constitution Hall, the Lincoln Theatre and Lisner Auditorium at The George Washington University, along with a number of other venues in and around the District. In October 2009, GMCW has toured many of the major cities in North America and also toured abroad. On Tuesday, March 2, 2010, the GMCW select ensemble Rock Creek Singers was honored to perform in a celebration of Gay Marriage Equality in the District hosted by Congressional Delegate Eleanor Holmes Norton. Last October, GMCW was honored to welcome with song thousands of National Equality March demonstrators to the West Lawn of the Capitol. On January 18, 2009, GMCW had the distinct honor of performing as part of the concert We Are One: The Obama Inaugural Celebration at the Lincoln Memorial, for the 56th Presidential Inaugural. On the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, like many others before them who struggled to achieve equality, the Chorus sang "America" with Josh Groban and Heather Headley before President-elect Obama and millions around the world. During its 20th anniversary season, GMCW performed at Symphony Hall in Boston and Carnegie Hall in New York City. In December 2002, GMCW was honored to perform as part of the 25th annual Kennedy Center Honors in tribute to Elizabeth Taylor. This performance was televised nationwide, bringing the Chorus into millions of homes across the nation. GMCW returned to the Kennedy Center Honors in December 2010 to honor Jerry Herman alongside Carol Channing, Angela Lansbury and Chita Rivera, among other Broadway luminaries. This performance will be broadcast on December 28 on CBS.

The more than 275 members of GMCW perform five subscription concerts annually. GMCW also appears at a number of community events, including programs for PFLAG, Whitman-Walker Clinic and Food & Friends. GMCW sponsors two small ensembles: Potomac Fever, a close harmony group, and Rock Creek Singers, a 25-voice chamber music ensemble. These ensembles serve as representatives of GMCW at many community functions.

GMCW has won a number of awards, including the prestigious Mayor's Arts Award for artistic excellence in 1989, and four Washington Area Music Association's WAMMIE awards.

GMCW is a proud member of the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses (GALA Choruses) and the Cultural Alliance of Washington.

Information on upcoming GMCW events may be obtained by calling 202-293-1548 or by visiting the Chorus's web page at www.GMCW.org.

FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

REACH OUT AND TOUCH

Welcome to the first show of GMCW's historic 30th anniversary season, one filled with many exciting and original shows. We are grateful to the men and women who founded GMCW in 1981 and to our very dedicated members who continue their commitment to changing hearts and minds through song.

Men In Tights: A Pink Nutcracker is the first of five amazing shows that are part of our subscription series. Equally important to us and to our mission of educating about the gay experience and affirming the place of gay people in society is the work we do in the community via our community outreach program.

First and foremost, our youth outreach program, GenOUT, has grown in leaps and bounds since it began nine years ago. Each season we welcome hundreds of high school and college students to our shows, providing them with free tickets. Most recently, a team of GMCW singers produced two "It Gets Better" videos that are being seen on the Internet by youth and others around the country and the world. I often wonder how my life would have changed if I saw a gay chorus concert or watched a life-changing video while I was in high school.

GMCW and its two outreach ensembles are busier than ever performing at a wide variety of community events. The full Chorus began our anniversary season by singing at the opening ceremonies of the AIDS Walk. This was followed by a performance with Margaret Cho at her Cho-Dependent show at the Warner Theater. Earlier this month the Chorus was the featured performer at Merriment in Georgetown!, an annual holiday season event. Topping off a busy fall was the great honor of singing at the Kennedy Center Honors on Sunday, December 5, in tribute to Jerry Herman. You will have the opportunity to see GMCW's performance with Angela Landsbury, Chita Rivera and Carol Channing when CBS airs the awards show on December 28 at 9:00 pm.

Our small outreach ensembles, Potomac Fever and Rock Creek Singers, have performed at many events this fall...the Shakespeare Theatre Company Fall Arts Preview, Hillwood Estates Gay Day, the Northern Virginia Junior League Enchanted Evening, the National Portrait Gallery's opening of its Hide/Seek: Difference and Desire in American Portraiture show, the American Diabetes Association Heroes Awards dinner, Ashby Ponds Retirement Community and a performance at the Smithsonian Rotunda.

Another exciting event was Potomac Fever's performance at the residence of Vice President and Dr. Biden for their annual holiday party. This is the second holiday season that PF has been invited to sing for the vice president.

If you have an event where you would like the chorus or our small ensembles to perform, visit our website at GMCW.org or call the chorus office at 202-293-1548.

On behalf of our Chorus family, I would like to wish you a happy, healthy holiday season and a wonderful new year.

— Jeff Buhrman

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

During our 30 Anniversary Season, the Chorus membership has begun a practice of having a "30 Anniversary Moment" at rehearsals at which time members stand up and speak about a meaningful moment in their personal history with the Chorus. With 30 years of memories to pull from and over 275 member points of view, the stories are as diverse and unique as our membership. Someone might remember a private moment during which they greeted their family members in the lobby following the first performance that their birth and chosen families were introduced to one another. Another member recalls stories of the Chorus being turned away from various performance venues during our early years because of the word "gay" in our title. The diversity of stories and their significance to our membership and to our individual coming out experiences reminds me that we are much more than a performance art group. We continue to be agents of change for our singers, our audience and our community and we hope that somewhere along the way, we have created a positive change in your life along with some treasured moments that you have shared with the Chorus. Our holiday show is an important ritual for many in the GLBT community along with our chosen and birth families, friends and allies. Thank you for being here and for making us a part of your holidays.

— David Jobin

JEFF BUHRMAN, Artistic Director

This is Jeff Buhrman's 11th season as artistic director of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington. Under his leadership, GMCW has been recognized as one of the finest and most prominent men's choruses in the country, with more than 275 singing members and a reputation for musical diversity and innovation. From classical music to newly commissioned works to fully staged productions of Broadway shows, GMCW is a musical leader in the GLBT choral movement.

During Jeff's tenure GMCW has received many honors. In January 2009, the Chorus was selected to sing "America" at We Are One: The Obama Inaugural Celebration on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial. Two weeks ago the Chorus performed with Angela Lansbury, Carol Channing and Chita Rivera at the Kennedy Center Honors tribute to Broadway composer Jerry Herman. The program will be aired on CBS on December 28 at 9:00 pm. In December 2002, the Chorus was featured at the Honors salute to Elizabeth Taylor. The Chorus has also performed at Carnegie Hall in New York and Jeff has led the Chorus in recording six compact discs, including two original commissions: Songs of My Family and Changing Hearts. GMCW's 20th anniversary CD, I Dream of a Time, won the 2002 WAMMIE award for outstanding choral recording from the Washington Area Music Association. GMCW also received the WAMMIE award for Best Choral Group in 2003 and 2005. Consistently praised by local critics, GMCW was hailed as "one of the finest male choruses in the world" in 2001 by a Washington Post reviewer. Another noted that "huge choruses often sound thick and ponderous, but conductor Jeff Buhrman educed a light, limber, beautifully balanced sonority that ebbed and shimmered, framing lyrics with coronas of color."

Jeff joined the Chorus as a singing member in 1986. Two years later he began directing the small ensemble Potomac Fever, a job he held for the next 10 seasons culminating in a European tour at which PF sang at the opening ceremonies of the European Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses festival in Munich. He resumed directing Potomac Fever in 2003. In 1989, Jeff began an eight year run as assistant director of the Chorus, working with Music Director Jim Holloway. Jeff had the honor of directing GMCW at an inauguration concert for President Clinton in January 1997.

Under Jeff's direction, Potomac Fever has attained a wide following with its distinctive style which is characterized by fluid phrasing and warmth of tone. Through his tenure the group has become a leader in community outreach, performing many concerts, fundraisers and events in the Washington area and around the country. PF will travel to Fredericksburg, VA, in February to sing a fundraiser for Fredericksburg Pride. In April they will give two concerts in New Mexico: a fundraiser for St. Martin's Homeless Shelter in Albuquerque and a concert at Rainbow Visions in Santa Fe, one of the first GLBT retirement communities in the country.

Having worked with high school students as a choral director and school counselor for 25 years, Jeff is most proud of founding GMCW's youth outreach program in 2002, a program that has grown significantly and is now known as GenOUT. The Chorus reaches out to over 200 area high schools and colleges and has provided thousands of free tickets to youth over the past nine years.

Jeff holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education and voice from Montclair State University and a Master of Arts in counseling from The George Washington University. In addition, he studied voice with Marden Bate and conducting with David Randolph, and received additional training in voice with Walter Blazer of the Manhattan School of Music. He has performed with such preeminent choral conductors as Robert Shaw, Roger Wagner, David Randolph and Dennis Keene.

Jeff's greatest pleasure is sharing his life with his wonderful husband, Roger, and their mini-dachshund, Mocha.

DAVID JOBIN, Executive Director

Prior to moving to Washington in 2009, David spent 20 years in theater management, most recently as managing director of San Francisco's esteemed Magic Theatre — widely recognized as the nation's premiere home for new play development. For seven years, David was the managing director of Pittsburgh's City Theatre Company — another prominent new play theater. Plays that were developed at City Theatre during David's tenure include several staples of American regional theater including Jeffrey Hatcher's Compleat Female Stage Beauty, Michele Lowe's String of Pearls, Craig Wright's The Pavilion and Mrs. Bob Cratchit's Wild Christmas Binge by Christopher Durang.

David began his career in theater management spending eight years with the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera as the director of the CLO Academy of Musical Theatre. Mr. Jobin also directed CLO's outreach efforts including New Horizons, which provides theater training to people with physical and developmental disabilities, and Creative Vision, a collaboration with Pittsburgh Public Schools designed to gauge the impact of arts training on young lives. David served on the boards of Theatre Bay Area, Renaissance City Choirs (Pittsburgh's Gay & Lesbian Choruses), Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus, GLENDA (Gay and Lesbian Neighborhood Development Association in Pittsburgh), served on the Executive Committee of the League of Resident Theatres (LORT) and has been a frequent guest speaker for Theatre Communications Group (TCG) on marketing to new audiences and board development.

David has also been a singing member of Renaissance City Choirs in Pittsburgh, Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus in San Jose and San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus where he also performed with the small ensemble Vocal Minority. David was one of the organizers of the Pittsburgh AIDS Task Force's long-running Outrageous BINGO and served as artistic coordinator of Persad's Art for AIDS annual benefit in Pittsgurgh. David currently serves on the DC Center's Community Advisory Board and the Marketing Committee for GALA Choruses.

THEA KANO, Assistant Music Director

A native of northern California, Thea Kano began studying the piano at the age of four. In 2004, she completed her doctorate in choral conducting under Donald Neuen at the University of California, Los Angeles. She earned her Master of Music degree in choral conducting from UCLA, and earned her undergraduate degree in choral music education and piano performance from Arizona State University. Dr. Kano taught high school vocal music and musical theater in southern California for several years. Her ensembles received several prestigious awards, including Most Outstanding Performance at the Reno International Jazz Festival.

While attending graduate school, Dr. Kano studied conducting with Paul Salamunovich as part of her research for the Duruflé Requiem. She was a teaching associate and administrative assistant for the Department of Choral Music at UCLA where she directed the University Chorus. Additional responsibilities included serving as the assistant conductor of the UCLA Chorale and the UCLA Chamber Singers. In addition, she served as the assistant director of the Angeles Chorale and was the artistic director of the San Fernando Valley Youth Chorus in Los Angeles.

Dr. Kano has prepared choruses for Zubin Mehta, Esa-Pekka Solonen, Emil de Cou, David Hayes, Enrique Diemecke, Norman Mamey, Michael Kamen, Randall Craig Fleischer, Victor Vener, Paul Salamunovich and Donald Neuen. She has sung and conducted at Walt Disney Concert Hall, The Kennedy Center, The Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall.

Dr. Kano moved to Washington, DC in 2004 upon her multiple appointments as associate conductor of The Washington Chorus, assistant music director of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC, and artistic director of the Capitol Hill Youth Chorus. In 2005, she founded the New York City Master Chorale as its artistic director and now resides in both Washington and New York City.

CRAIG CIPOLLINI, Stage Director-Choreographer

Originally from Baltimore, now residing in Washington, DC, Craig began dancing at the age of 14. He has an extensive background in theater, primarily musical theater, having performed all over the East Coast. He has toured with productions of A Chorus Line and 42nd Street, in addition to many regional, summer stock and dinner theater credits. Craig has also worked extensively as a director and choreographer. Some shows he has directed and/or choreographed include Cabaret, Thoroughly Modern Millie, The Will Rogers Follies, Annie, Hair, The Rocky Horror Show, Carousel and West Side Story to name a few. Craig has choreographed all major concerts for the Chorus for the past three seasons. He is also a choreographer for the DC Cowboys, a local gay dance troupe that has performed all over the United States. He recently had the opportunity to perform with the Cowboys on NBC-TV's America's Got Talent, where the group made it to the Top 40. By day, Craig is the business and administrative manager for GMCW.

THEODORE GUERRANT, Principal Accompanist

Now in his 28th season as GMCW's principal accompanist, "Dr. Teddy" began his musical life in his native College Park, Georgia, with piano lessons from his mother at age three, an Atlanta television appearance at age four on Freddie Miller's Stars of Tomorrow and formal piano lessons with Regina Pudney at age five. At age 11 he began organ lessons with his then next door neighbor, Frank Willingham. By the time he was a senior in high school at Woodward Academy and studying piano with his aunt, Eliza Holmes Feldmann, then artist-in-residence at Brenau College in Gainesville, Georgia, Teddy was accompanying five choral groups and playing five church services every week. He went off to colleges with various scholarships and assistantships and eventually earned five degrees in keyboard performance (three in piano, one in harpsichord and one in organ) from the Universities of Georgia, Wisconsin and Maryland, as well as the Peabody Conservatory. He spent an idyllic summer in England studying piano with Denise Lassimonne in 1984, and ultimately settled down to juggle the six part-time positions he presently holds as organist-choirmaster at Saint Margaret's Episcopal Church (Washington); associate organist at Saint Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church (Hyattsville); accompanist/rehearsal assistant for the Central Maryland Chorale, the National Philharmonic Chorale at Strathmore Hall and GMCW; and coach-accompanist in the University of Maryland School of Music where, among a wide variety of duties, he leads graduate students through their comprehensive exams, works with the resident faculty and artists such as Evelyn Lear, and accompanies his other men's chorus, UMen. In his spare time, Dr. Teddy works at maintaining a century-plus old home in Laurel, Maryland's historic district and several keyboard instruments older than his house.

OVATION SOCIETY

The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington's Ovation Society is an initiative that recognizes and honors those generous individuals and families who have made planned gifts to the Chorus.

If you have already included GMCW in your estate plans, please let us know so that we can include you as a member of the Ovation Society. If not, we hope you will consider joining this special group by including GMCW in your will, as a beneficiary of a retirement account or by setting up a charitable trust. Planned gifts can greatly reduce the amount of tax paid by your estate at the time of your death and often do not change the amount that would go to your family and friends.

While your attorney or accountant can provide you with more information, GMCW has several corporate sponsors – both financial planners and attorneys – who specialize in GLBT estate issues. We are happy to share this resource list with you upon request.

As a member of the Ovation Society, you will also be invited to attend special events and receptions especially for Ovation Society members.

For further information about GMCW's Ovation Society or if you are interested in learning more about the many ways you can include GMCW in your plans, please contact Executive Director David Jobin at 202-293-1548 or DJobin@GMCW.org.

PARTNERS IN HARMONY PROGRAM

The mission of GMCW to "entertain through excellent musical performance, to affirm the place of gay people in society and to educate about the gay experience" includes honoring and promoting others whose mission enhances and complements our own. In a world where religious leaders and their organizations have too often embodied the oppression and rejection that many of us have suffered, we rejoice to notice the growing number of synagogues, congregations, churches and other religious organizations that welcome, enfold and celebrate GLBT persons.

Sometimes at great risk to the respect and support of their own traditions, sometimes in prophetic leadership roles in their communities, sometimes as quietly and naturally as living out their core values, these groups are a rich source of meaning, community, service and worship for many of our singers and audience members.

We celebrate that we perform in the Washington, DC metropolitan area TOGETHER IN HARMONY with these colleagues in several faith traditions.

We proudly list them here as our PARTNERS IN HARMONY. We recommend them to any who are looking for a faith community to call home.

FOR THE BOYS

Visit GMCW's own Stage Door Canteen, a swinging salute to GLBT men and women in uniform who serve, despite the policy that has denied them full equality. Featuring songs including "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy," "If You Were Gay" and "This Is The Army, Mr. Jones," join us for a GAY homage to those who serve, protect and defend.

CIRCLE OF EXCELLENCE

Circle of Excellence Awards are chosen annually by members of GMCW to recognize the outstanding contributions made by members of the Chorus, including paid music and administrative staff, the support section and the Capital Circle. These awards honor those individuals who have exemplified the spirit of camaraderie, brother- and sisterhood and community in the Chorus and whose work has had lasting impact over many years.

It's the season of love...

Help make it last a lifetime by becoming a parent for a teen in foster care.

Don't let a child's age, race or sexual orientation stand in the way of adoption.

THE BEST LITTLE WHORE HOUSE IN TEXAS

Book by Larry L. King & Peter Masterson
Music & Lyrics by Carol Hall
Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

It's all big songs and big hair in this sassy, spirited and touching musical about the real-life brothel in Texas. GMCW's all-male cast of singers and dancers takes on a loud-talking televangelist, romances the town sheriff and brings new meaning to the term "Chicken Ranch."

Seasonal Ponderings...

1. How will you know it's beginning to look a lot like Christmas?
2. What's the best method for thawing Frosty the Snowman?
3. Why will it be a holly, jolly Christmas this year? (answers appear below)

WISHING YOU AND YOURS THE VERY BEST OF THE HOLIDAY SEASON!

1. When you see Daddy kissing Santa Clause
2. Roasting his chestnuts on an open fire
3. Because angels, I have heard, get high
