The GenOUT Chorus is one of eight choruses for LGBTQ+ and allied youth in the US. GenOUT was founded in January 2015 as an outreach ensemble of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC, and over the past six seasons, the chorus has welcomed more than 90 singers from over four dozen schools in the metro DC area. GenOUT's current membership of 30 singers hails from 25 different schools. The ensemble's two-fold mission is to give LGBTQ+ and allied youth a voice, and to connect that voice to community. There are no auditions to participate in GenOUT; all that is required is a love of singing and a commitment to use your voice to promote social justice. GenOUT performs regularly with GMCW at the Lincoln Theatre, and has additionally performed at such venues as the Kennedy Center, Library of Congress, Washington National Cathedral, and the White House for President Obama. GenOUT presents around a dozen outreach performances every season at schools, faith communities, and public events. In July, GenOUT will travel with GMCW to the quadrennial GALA Choruses Festival in Minneapolis.

Founded in 1995, the Children's Chorus of Washington (CCW) provides music education and performance opportunities for children in the nation's capital region, fostering students' growth as musicians and leaders by emphasizing artistic excellence, personal responsibility, and working together toward a common goal. An independent nonprofit, CCW impacts young singers through consistent rehearsals, collaborations with other artists, and performances in all District quadrants and beyond. Internationally recognized and critically acclaimed for its outstanding artistry, CCW partners with DC's leading arts organizations, and reaches thousands of attendees in regional, national, and international venues. CCW also provides professional development for DC Public Schools music educators so more youth across the city have the opportunity to sing. To learn more, visit childrenschorusdc.org.

WHO'S WHO

Thea Kano, GMCW Artistic Director

Dr. Thea Kano, a Northern California native, became active in the arts at an early age. She started playing piano at age four and began taking ballet soon after, a background that has a strong influence on her conducting. Dr. Kano's graceful yet commanding presence on stage and the robust performances she obtains from her musicians have basis in her formal training as a dancer.

Dr. Kano has conducted an extensive range of repertoire with several ensembles, including the Angeles Chorale, The Washington Chorus, and in 2014 assumed the position of artistic director of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC, for which she also directs its acclaimed ensembles Rock Creek Singers and Potomac Fever. In addition, she oversees GMCW's outreach efforts, including its GenOUT program. A champion of music education, Dr. Kano has devoted countless hours to students of all ages and backgrounds. She believes in the power of music to nurture and believes that classical music should be accessible to all. Dr. Kano's substantial experience in this arena includes: building partnerships with organizations serving disenfranchised adults, hosting workshops with at-risk youth, leading youth arts programs of many sizes, as well as directing award-winning high school and collegiate choruses.

In addition to her work with GMCW, Dr. Kano founded the New York City Master Chorale in 2005, and served as its artistic director until spring 2019. The 80-member group is recognized as one of the finest vocal ensembles in New York City and has performed to sold-out audiences on two continents. Dr. Kano is known for her expressiveness and dynamic conducting, and the Chorale has been praised for its balance and richness in tone in performing a variety of musical styles. Under her direction, the Chorale made its debuts at Lincoln Center (2006) and Carnegie Hall (2009), as well as its international debut in Paris, France (2011).

Dr. Kano has prepared choruses for Zubin Mehta, Esa-Pekka Solonen, Emil de Cou, David Hayes, Craig Fleischer, Victor Vener, and Paul Salamunovich. Dr. Kano's various ensembles have performed at the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Disney Hall, Église Saint-Sulpice (Paris), and on the National Mall for the 2009 inaugural ceremonies.

Dr. Kano received her doctorate in choral conducting from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2004. At UCLA, Dr. Kano studied under Donald Neuen, her professional mentor. For her dissertation on Duruflé's Requiem, Dr. Kano completed research with L'Association Duruflé in Paris and studied privately with Paul Salamunovich. Dr. Kano holds a Master of Music degree from UCLA and a bachelor's degree in choral music education and piano performance from Arizona State University. Dr. Kano speaks French and actively conducts ensembles in New York City, Paris, and Washington, DC.

C. Paul Heins, Associate Conductor/GenOUT Director

C. Paul Heins joined the GMCW artistic team as associate conductor in the 2014 – 2015 season. Dr. Heins's principal role with GMCW is directing the GenOUT Chorus, an outreach ensemble for LGBTQ+ and allied youth founded in 2015. Under Dr. Heins's leadership, GenOUT has grown from its inaugural class of nine singers to a current enrollment of 30 singers representing 25 schools in DC, Maryland, and Virginia. Over the past five years, more than 90 students from over four dozen schools have participated in GenOUT Chorus and Camps, and notable performance venues have included the John F. Kennedy Center, the Library of Congress, the Washington National Cathedral, and the White House for President Obama.

Dr. Heins's previous appointments include Georgetown University (Concert Choir director), the Lesbian & Gay Chorus of Washington (director), the Washington Master Chorale (assistant director), Washington Men's Camerata (accompanist/associate conductor), and the College of William & Mary (interim choir director). Dr. Heins is a frequent guest pianist, flutist, and conductor in the DC area. He was trained in piano and flute at Bowling Green State University (B.Mus.), flute at the University of Maryland (M.Mus.), and choral conducting at the University of Maryland (D.M.A.). His principal teachers have been Edward Maclary, Patrick Walders, and Mark S. Kelly (conducting); William Montgomery and Judith Bentley (flute); and Virginia Marks and Victoria Harris (piano). His doctoral work centered around Lukas Foss's cantata, The Prairie.

Margaret Nomura Clark, Artistic Director Children's Chorus of Washington

Ms. Clark joined the Children's Chorus of Washington as artistic director in August 2016. She was the associate artistic director of the San Francisco Boys Chorus (SFBC) (1997 – 2015), director of the Intermediate Chorus, and supervised all tiers of the Training Chorus School. At SFBC, Ms. Clark worked closely with the San Francisco Symphony and the San Francisco Opera, and performed and toured at numerous festivals. A highlight of her career was an invitation with the San Francisco Boys Chorus to sing at the inauguration of President Barack Obama in 2009. In the fall of 2015, she was appointed to the choral faculty at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music Pre-college Division, where she launched a choral program for instrumental students ages 7 – 18. Ms. Clark was also the middle school music teacher at the Hamlin School for Girls, where she started a choral program that now is a hallmark of the school. Ms. Clark earned her B.M. and M.M.E in music education from the Oberlin Conservatory and studied choral conducting with Robert Shaw, Rodney Eichenberger, Henry Leck, and Doreen Rao.
