Welcome to a BRAND NEW DAY!

"The ones who came before you The others yet to come And those who you will teach it to And those you learned it from"

Inspired by the lyrics from the song "The Human Heart" from Broadway's Once On This Island, our show Brand New Day explores stories establishing acceptance and love from our chosen families and our chosen homes. The notion that we dream our dreams, we choose our home, we chose our family, and we are part of the human heart is brought to life with through this show's songs and stories.

GMCW is committed to telling stories through song and dance. We tell the stories of those who came before us, and we tell stories of our dreams for the next generation. That next generation is represented in our GenOUT Youth Chorus, a thriving community of young LGBTQ+ and allied individuals committed to raising their voice for equality. Thanks to you, our incredible supporters, the GenOUT Youth Chorus is growing and flourishing, learning to have these conversations, to make new connections, and to establish acceptance and love within the community.

Every day is a brand new day with possibilities for new conversations, new connections, and dreams realized. We are living through challenging times, but each day is a step toward a world of love and acceptance.

You are OUR chosen family. Thank you for celebrating a Brand New Day with us!

HUMAN FAMILY

Poem by Maya Angelou

I note the obvious differences in the human family. Some of us are serious, some thrive on comedy. Some declare their lives are lived as true profundity, And others claim they really live the real reality.

The variety of our skin tones can confuse, bemuse, delight, Brown and pink and beige and purple, tan and blue and white. I've sailed upon the seven seas and stopped in every land, I've seen the wonders of the world not yet one common man. I know ten thousand women called Jane and Mary Jane, But I've not seen any two who really were the same.

Mirror twins are different although their features jibe, And lovers think quite different thoughts While lying side by side. We love and lose in China, we weep on England's moors, And laugh and moan in Guinea, and thrive on Spanish shores. We seek success in Finland, are born and die in Maine. In minor ways we differ, in major we're the same.

I note the obvious differences between each sort and type, But we are more alike, my friends, than we are unalike. We are more alike, my friends, than we are unalike. We are more alike, my friends, than we are unalike.

TRANSLATIONS

LUZ Y SOMBRA

Translated from Spanish

I am the errant bird, I am the black night, I am the humble flower And the aching heart.

I am the errant bird that sobs alone, And is always crossing arid deserts; So you must be the benevolent green branch that offers Sweet solace to the bird that is already dying.

I am the black night, without lights, without stars; I am the heaven of shadows, of roaring tempests; So you must be the chaste Moon who with her lovely light Dissipates the horrible darkness of that night.

I am the humble flower possessing neither beauty nor festive attire, Possessing neither placid colors nor inebriating fragrance; You, the pallid lily of Acolian purity Whose chaste perfume is the breath of love,

But if the humble flower loved the lily, And thankfully saw its passion rewarded, It might lift up its corolla, full perhaps of sweet aroma, Its stem forever straightened by the breath of love.

My life is a sigh, your life a smile; You must be, my love, the north star that guides my ambition, You are the brook and bird, you are perfume and zephyr, The loveliest laurel that the heart desires.

WAKANTANHAN HOTANIN'PE

Translation from Siouxan to English provided by the composer

My sacred brother is making himself heard The Thunderbird Nation is flying Making their voices heard.

ARIRANG

Translated from Korean

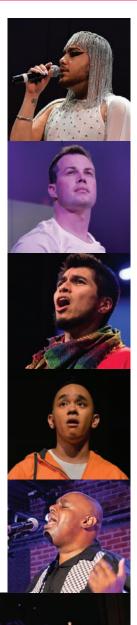

Arirang, Arirang, Arariyo You are going over Arirang Pass.

The one who leaves me, I shall not walk before his feet go sore.

Just as there are many stars in the clear sky, There are also many dreams in our heart.

There, over there, that mountain is the Baekdusan Mountain, Where even in the middle of winter days, flowers bloom.

Arirang, Arirang Arariyo, You are going over Arirang Pass.

WHO'S WHO

Thea Kano, Artistic Director

Dr. Thea Kano, a Northern California native, became active in the arts at an early age. She started playing piano at age four and began taking ballet soon after, a background that has a strong influence on her conducting. Dr. Kano's graceful yet commanding presence on stage and the robust performances she obtains from her musicians have basis in her formal training as a dancer.

Dr. Kano has conducted an extensive range of repertoire with several ensembles, including the Angeles Chorale, The Washington Chorus, and in 2014 assumed the position of artistic director of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC, for which she also directs its acclaimed ensembles Rock Creek Singers and Potomac Fever. In addition, she oversees GMCW's outreach efforts, including its GenOUT program. A champion of music education, Dr. Kano has devoted countless hours to students of all ages and backgrounds. She believes in the power of music to nurture and believes that classical music should be accessible to all. Dr. Kano's substantial experience in this arena includes: building partnerships with organizations serving disenfranchised adults, hosting workshops with at-risk youth, leading youth arts programs of many sizes, as well as directing award-winning high school and collegiate choruses.

In addition to her work with GMCW, Dr. Kano founded the New York City Master Chorale in 2005 and served as the artistic director until spring 2019. The 80-member group is recognized as one of the finest vocal ensembles in New York City and has performed to sold-out audiences on two continents. Dr. Kano is known for her expressiveness and dynamic conducting, and the Chorale has been praised for its balance and richness in tone in performing a variety of musical styles. Under her direction, the Chorale made its debuts at Lincoln Center (2006) and Carnegie Hall (2009), as well as its international debut in Paris, France (2011).

Dr. Kano has prepared choruses for Zubin Mehta, Esa-Pekka Solonen, Emil de Cou, David Hayes, Craig Fleischer, Victor Vener, and Paul Salamunovich. Dr. Kano's various ensembles have performed at the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Disney Hall, Église Saint-Sulpice (Paris), and on the National Mall for the 2009 inaugural ceremonies.

Dr. Kano received her doctorate in choral conducting from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2004. At UCLA, Dr. Kano studied under Donald Neuen, her professional mentor. For her dissertation on Duruflé's Requiem, Dr. Kano completed research with L'Association Duruflé in Paris and studied privately with Paul Salamunovich. Dr. Kano holds a Master of Music degree from UCLA and a bachelor's degree in choral music education and piano performance from Arizona State University. Dr. Kano speaks French and actively conducts ensembles in New York City, Paris, and Washington, DC.

Under Dr. Heins's leadership, GenOUT has grown from its inaugural class of nine singers to a current enrollment of 23 singers representing more than two dozen schools in DC, Maryland, and Virginia. Over the past six years, more than 120 students from over 60 schools have participated in GenOUT Youth Chorus and camps, and notable performance venues have included the Kennedy Center, the Library of Congress, the Washington National Cathedral, and the White House for President Obama. In addition to its regular performances with GMCW, GenOUT's collaborations have included Nashville's Major Minors, The Musicianship's Washington Youth Chorus, The Washington Chorus, NYC's Youth Pride Chorus, and the Children's Chorus of Washington.

Dr. Heins's previous appointments include Georgetown University (Concert Choir director), the Lesbian & Gay Chorus of Washington (director), the Washington Master Chorale (assistant director), Washington Men's Camerata (accompanist/associate conductor), and the College of William & Mary (interim choir director). He was musical director for three GMCW musicals (Ruthless, When Pigs Fly, and You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown.) Dr. Heins is a frequent guest pianist, flutist, and conductor in the DC area. He was trained in piano and flute at Bowling Green State University (B.Mus.), flute at the University of Maryland (M.Mus.), and choral conducting at the University of Maryland (D.M.A.). His principal teachers have been Edward Maclary, Patrick Walders, and Mark S. Kelly (conducting); William Montgomery and Judith Bentley (flute); and Virginia Marks and Victoria Harris (piano). His doctoral work centered around Lukas Foss's cantata, The Prairie. Dr. Heins has presented at conferences of the American Choral Directors Association and Chorus America, and has served as guest clinician for DCPS music festivals and teacher workshops.

Joshua Sommerville, Assistant Conductor

A native of Gaithersburg, MD, Joshua Sommerville is a singer, pianist, music director, and composer who graduated from Towson University with a Bachelor of Science in Music. Joshua started his music journey at the age of five cultivating his skills at the piano. He often states, "if it weren't for my father, who taught me the only song he knew on the piano, my first piano teacher who taught me how to read music, and my mother, who refused to let me quit playing piano, I would not be where I am today."

He began his professional career as a musician, choir director, and singer at the tender age of 14. Throughout his musical journey, he has had the privilege of working with many esteemed artists like the late Dr. Walter Turnbull (Director of the Harlem Boys Choir), Dr. Ysaÿe Barnwell (of the Grammy Award-winning vocal group Sweet Honey in the Rock), Stanley Thurston, Bill Colosimo, Dr. Karen Kennedy, Dr. Joyce Garrett, Patrick Lundy, Richard Odom, Dr. Stephen Holmes, Dr. Marco Merrick, and Twinkie Clark, among others.

He has founded three semi-professional groups: His W.I.L. Community Choir, Unique Sounds of Love, and To Be Continued Youth Choir. Each group has been recognized and admired for their ability to sing multiple genres of music as well as their enticing stage presence. He also created the acclaimed workshop, How Much Do You Love It?, that has traveled to Bermuda, Italy, Guatemala, Germany, and Africa.

Joshua is the Minister of Music at Hall United Methodist Church of Glen Burnie. He also tours as music director for world-renowned choreographer Rennie Harris, and actively music directs productions within the private and public school systems. He joined the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC as Assistant Conductor in December 2019, and is very excited to also conduct Seasons of Love.

ABOUT US

MISSION

The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC (GMCW) sings to inspire equality and inclusion with musical performances and education promoting justice and dignity for all.

OVERVIEW

GMCW is the largest LGBTQ+ chorus in the nation's capital. We are a renowned performance group. Since 1981, we've performed shows nationally, internationally, and athome in Washington, DC. To date, we have 250+ singing members, four select ensembles, a youth chorus, over 500 donors, and an annual audience of 10,000+. Our mission is to use music to promote equality, achieve justice, and overcome our differences. Over the last 40 years, we've put on numerous shows and done hours and hours of community outreach. We've sung and danced our hearts out around the country, including our Equality Tours in 2017, 2018, and 2019. We've been around the world, too, including stops in Cuba, Iceland, and Ukraine. We've sung for the Clintons, the Bushes, the Obamas, and the Bidens. Alongside Alan Cumming, Carol Channing, Chita Rivera, and Angela Lansbury. We've visited many prestigious venues, including the Kennedy Center, the White House, and Carnegie Hall, just to name a few.

OVATION SOCIETY

The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC's Ovation Society is an initiative that recognizes and honors those generous individuals and families who have made planned gifts to the Chorus.

If you have already included GMCW in your estate plans, please let us know so that we can include you as a member of the Ovation Society. If not, we hope you will consider joining this special group by including GMCW in your will, as a beneficiary of a retirement account, or by setting up a charitable trust. Planned gifts can greatly reduce the amount of tax paid by your estate at the time of your death and often do not change the amount that would go to your family and friends.

While your attorney or accountant can provide you with more information, GMCW has several corporate sponsors — both financial planners and attorneys — who specialize in LGBTQ+ estate issues. We are happy to share this resource list with you upon request. As a member of the Ovation Society, you will be invited to attend special events and receptions especially for Ovation Society members.

For further information about GMCW's Ovation Society, or if you are interested in learning more about the many ways you can include GMCW in your plans, please contact Executive Director Justin Fyala, at 202-293-1548 or jfyala@gmcw.org.

PARTNERS IN HARMONY

In a world where religious leaders and their organizations have too often embodied the oppression and rejection that many of us have suffered, a growing number of synagogues, congregations, and other religious organizations are welcoming and celebrating LGBTQ+ persons. We proudly list them here as our PARTMERS IN HARMONY. We recommend them to any who are looking for a faith community to call home. Visit gmcw.org for links to all of these religious organizations.

#Me Too #We Too

Standing in solidarity with persons who have experienced childhood sexual abuse or incest, wherever they are in the world

"Every person who experiences sexual abuse as a child has their own way to imagine they're responsible for what happened to them. Gay men who are abused commonly imagine that just being gay made us to blame for sexual abuse by the adults in our lives."
