YOUTH CHORUS

GENOUT

The GenOUT Youth Chorus returns again this season, but in a brand new format! This year, GenOUT will collaborate with other DC-based youth performing artists to present a program of music, dance, spoken word, and more. Under the direction of C. Paul Heins, this concert will give voice to the identities of LGBTQ+ and allied youth. Come cheer on the voices of tomorrow in an event open to everyone.

PORTRAITS

"Our 43rd season and its June concert share the title Portraits, our brand-new commission with nine artists, nine composers, nine choreographers, and one GMCW celebrating the spectrum of human identity, orientation, expression, and culture."

— Thea Kano

PORTRAITS

We end our season with the world premiere of Portraits. Through visual art, music, and dance, Portraits represents the vibrant spectrum of sexual, gender, racial, ethnic, and cultural identities in a nine-movement commission combining the work of nine visual artists, nine composers, and nine choreographers, sung by the Chorus and featuring 17th Street Dance. Don't miss this one-of-a-kind event!

Scan the QR code below to learn more about the artists, composers, and choreographers of this world premiere.

SPRING AFFAIR

SAVE THE DATE!

MAY 18, 2024
THE RITZ-CARLTON
1150 22ND ST NW
WASHINGTON, DC

The GMCW Board of Directors invites you to our annual fundraiser, Spring Affair, which will be held on May 18, 2024. We will return once again to the glamorous Ritz-Carlton, Washington, DC for an evening of fun and excitement. Join us for dinner, entertainment, special presentations, an open-bar reception, the Harmony Award recipients, live and silent auctions, plus a special celebrity guest emcee to be announced soon. Mark your calendars to join us for the party of the year!

GMCW provides opportunities to showcase the humanity and relatability of LGBTQ+ individuals to society at-large and changes many hearts and minds in the process. And your support enables us to advance our mission to the benefit of tens of thousands of people every year!

Portraits is critically important because stories affirming the dignity and humanity of LGBTQ+ individuals are nearly absent in choral music and it's time for a change.

To that end, in July 2024, we will debut Portraits at the GALA Choruses Festival, the preeminent gathering of LGBTQ+ choruses from all over North America and beyond. We will inspire choruses around the country to take up the mantle of the Portraits project and stage their own premieres of this new work in cities around the country, spreading with it GMCW's values of equality, love, and empathy far and wide for years to come!

This project will bring awareness to our being — our love, our joy, our pain — in ways that many audience members will not have previously experienced. You can share in this societal enlightening with us by making a one-time gift or have a sustained impact with a new or increased pledge to our monthly giving program, Federal City Stars, by visiting tinyurl.com/supportGMCW.

Please contact Director of Development André Coleman at acoleman@gmcw.org if you would like to discuss opportunities to support GMCW this season.
