GAY MEN'S CHORUS OF WASHINGTON, DC

Now in its 31st season, the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC is the world's largest out gay men's chorus with a mission that is dynamic and socially-relevant. The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington delights audiences and champions gay equality with robust artistry, fun and surprise. GMCW has more than 275 singing members, two select vocal ensembles, 100 support volunteers, more than 800 subscribers, 500 donors and an annual audience of more than 12,000 people.

Founded in 1981, GMCW quickly became a staple of the Washington choral music scene and has since toured many of the major cities in North America and abroad.

Most recently, on November 3, 2011, GMCW select ensemble Rock Creek Singers was honored to sing for hundreds of LGBT community and local civic leaders at the historic Carnegie Library for a closed-casket viewing in honor of longtime gay rights activist Dr. Frank Kameny. On June 29, 2011, GMCW select ensemble Potomac Fever performed for President Obama and guests in a celebration of LGBT Pride Month at the White House. On January 18, 2009, GMCW had the distinct honor of performing as part of the concert We Are One: The Obama Inaugural Celebration at the Lincoln Memorial, for the 56th Presidential Inaugural. On the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, the Chorus sang "America" with Josh Groban and Heather Headley before President-elect Obama and millions around the world. In 1997, GMCW performed for President Bill Clinton's second inauguration. During its 20th anniversary season, GMCW performed at Symphony Hall in Boston and Carnegie Hall in New York City. In December 2002, GMCW was honored to perform as part of the 25th annual Kennedy Center Honors in tribute to Elizabeth Taylor. This performance was televised nationwide, bringing the Chorus into millions of homes across the nation. GMCW returned to the Kennedy Center Honors in December 2010 to honor Jerry Herman alongside Carol Channing, Angela Lansbury and Chita Rivera, among other Broadway luminaries. The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington was honored to win the 2010 Washington Area Music Award for Best Choral Group.

GMCW performs five subscription concerts annually and appears at a number of community events, including programs for PFLAG, Whitman-Walker Health and Food & Friends. GMCW sponsors two small ensembles: Potomac Fever, a close harmony group, and Rock Creek Singers, a 25-voice chamber music ensemble. These ensembles serve as representatives of GMCW at many community functions. GMCW is a proud member of the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses (GALA Choruses) and the Cultural Alliance of Washington. Information on upcoming GMCW events may be obtained by calling 202-293-1548 or by visiting the Chorus's web page at www.GMCW.org.

FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Happy holidays and thank you for joining us for Red & Greene. The Chorus continues to grow in so many different ways. We welcomed 30 new singers in September and for the first time in our history we are performing with over 200 singers on stage. As the Chorus has grown, so has our commitment to community outreach. This season we have switched into high gear with our outreach work.

In October, Chorus members and friends contributed over $12,600 to the AIDS Walk on behalf of GMCW. Our singers opened the AIDS Walk ceremonies by singing the national anthem and many of them participated in the 5K race or the walk. In November, our Chorus family collected used clothing for the homeless at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, our rehearsal home for over 20 years. And we end 2011 with our annual toy drive by collecting hundreds of toys to donate to the children at Community Family Life Services in DC. We have also continued our commitment to Food & Friends. For several years, Chorus members spend one evening a month as kitchen volunteers. We continue to look for other outreach activities — giving back to the community is a vital component of the work we do.

We also have the great opportunity to contribute to the community by singing outreach performances. Last season ended with a great honor as Potomac Fever, one of our outreach ensembles, performed for President Obama and LGBT leaders in the East Room of the White House. This fall the Chorus, Rock Creek Singers and Potomac Fever have performed at Hillwood's Gay Day, for the Shakespeare Theatre Company fall arts day, at the Imperial Court of DC International Gala, the Arts Club of Washington, with the cast of Les Misérables at a benefit for Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS and at the Metropolitan Community Church of DC holiday concert. Chorus members have caroled in the community on three chilly December evenings and our singers will continue the 25+ year tradition of singing at the National Institutes of Health on Christmas Eve. Last Sunday Potomac Fever sang their third annual performance at a holiday party at the home of Vice President and Dr. Biden.

On behalf of the GMCW family I would like to wish everyone a warm and wonderful holiday season and a happy new year.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Chorus membership and board recently completed a strategic plan that outlines where the Chorus is headed for the next four years and lays out a vision for 20 years beyond that. Strategic plans are an ambitious undertaking for any organization but especially so for one that includes among its ranks nearly 300 committed volunteers who all, rightfully so, feel a sense of ownership of the entity and responsibility for its future.

For those of you who track such things, you may have noticed that as a result of the strategic plan, we have turned the page on our old mission statement that included "entertaining through musical excellence," "affirming the place of gay people in society," and "educating about the gay experience." My guess is that you will still see us doing those things, but the new mission statement, "The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington delights audiences and champions gay equality with robust artistry, fun and surprise," seems a bit more on target for where we are as a Chorus in the nation's capital in 2011. It was agreed that much of the work of educating about the gay experience may be behind us in the District, and that we are moving on to a more active role of championing gay rights in the LGBT movement and beyond. That's not to say that the gay and lesbian choruses in more conservative areas don't still have some educating to do in their communities. But we are fortunate to be in one of the most educated and enlightened areas of the country where we can lift our voices to help cheerlead and champion within earshot of our national leaders.

Please know that every time you renew your subscription, purchase a ticket or make a donation to GMCW, you are making it possible for the Chorus to continue to be champions for gay equality. Because as our mission states, we are more than an arts organization — we are an agent for positive change for gay rights and we appreciate your participation in helping us fulfill this important role. We also appreciate your being with us for the holidays so that we can accomplish the other crucial part of our mission: to delight audiences with robust artistry, fun and surprise. Please enjoy the concert and enjoy the holiday season, and we look forward to seeing you again in February.

WHO'S WHO

JEFF BUHRMAN, Artistic Director

This is Jeff Buhrman's 12th season as artistic director of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington. Under his leadership, GMCW has been recognized as one of the finest and most prominent men's choruses in the country, with more than 275 singing members and a reputation for musical diversity and innovation. From classical music to newly commissioned works to fully staged productions of Broadway shows, GMCW is a musical leader in the LGBT choral movement. Jeff recently became a member of the Board of Directors of the Gay & Lesbian Association of Choruses (GALA).

During Jeff's tenure GMCW has received many honors. In January 2009, the Chorus was selected to sing "America" at We Are One: The Obama Inaugural Celebration on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial. Last December the Chorus performed with Angela Lansbury, Carol Channing and Chita Rivera at the Kennedy Center Honors tribute to Broadway composer Jerry Herman. In December 2002, the Chorus was featured at the Honors salute to Elizabeth Taylor. The Chorus has also performed at Carnegie Hall in New York and Jeff has led the Chorus in recording six compact discs, including two original commissions: Songs of My Family and Changing Hearts. GMCW's 20th anniversary CD, I Dream of a Time, won the 2002 WAMMIE award for outstanding choral recording from the Washington Area Music Association. GMCW also received the WAMMIE award for Best Choral Group in 2003, 2005 and 2010. Consistently praised by local critics, GMCW was hailed as "one of the finest male choruses in the world" in 2001 by a Washington Post reviewer. Another noted that "huge choruses often sound thick and ponderous, but conductor Jeff Buhrman educed a light, limber, beautifully balanced sonority that ebbed and shimmered, framing lyrics with coronas of color."

Jeff joined the Chorus as a singing member in 1986. Two years later he began directing the small ensemble Potomac Fever, a job he held for the next 10 seasons culminating in a European tour at which PF sang at the opening ceremonies of the European Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses festival in Munich. He resumed directing Potomac Fever in 2003. In 1989, Jeff began an eight year run as assistant director of the Chorus, working with Music Director Jim Holloway. Jeff had the honor of directing GMCW at an inauguration concert for President Clinton in January 1997.

Under Jeff's direction, Potomac Fever has attained a wide following with its distinctive style which is characterized by fluid phrasing and warmth of tone. Through his tenure the group has become a leader in community outreach, performing many concerts, fundraisers and events in the Washington area and around the country.

Having worked with high school students as a choral director and guidance counselor for 25 years, Jeff is most proud of founding GMCW's youth outreach program in 2002, a program that has grown significantly and is now known as GenOUT. The Chorus reaches out to over 900 area high schools and colleges and has provided thousands of free tickets to youth over the past nine years.

Jeff holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education and voice from Montclair State University and a Master of Arts in counseling from The George Washington University. In addition, he studied voice with Marden Bate and conducting with David Randolph, and received additional training in voice with Walter Blazer of the Manhattan School of Music. He has performed with such preeminent choral conductors as Robert Shaw, Roger Wagner, David Randolph and Dennis Keene.

Jeff's greatest pleasure is sharing his life with his wonderful husband, Roger, and their mini-clachshund, Mocha.

DAVID JOBIN, Executive Director

During David Jobin's three years as the administrative leader of GMCW, Chorus revenues have grown by 65% due to increases in subscriptions, individual gifts and corporate, government and foundation support. Also during this time, the Chorus launched a new long term strategic plan that lays out a roadmap to further improving the Chorus's finances and operations while expanding its reach and impact in the community. Prior to his move to DC, David spent 20 years in theater management, most recently as managing director of San Francisco's esteemed

Magic Theatre — widely recognized as the nation's premiere home for new play development. For seven years, David was the managing director of Pittsburgh's City Theatre Company — another prominent new play theater. David began his career in theater management spending eight years with the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera as the director of the CLO Academy of Musical Theater. David served on the boards of Theatre Bay Area, Renaissance City Choirs (Pittsburgh's Gay & Lesbian Chorus), Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus, GLEND A (Gay and Lesbian Neighborhood Development Association in Pittsburgh) and served on the Executive Committee of the League of Resident Theatres (LORT). ELLEN GREENE, Actress and Recording Artist

Actress, singer and recording artist Ellen Greene, acclaimed for her work on stage and screen, spent two seasons portraying the endearing, cheese-loving Vivian, one of the Darling Mermaid Darlings, on the critically praised ABC series Pushing Daisies. She was also recently seen in a completely different role, offering a dramatic, chilling performance as Virginia Grey, the mother of Syla, on two episodes of the NBC drama Heroes.

Her role as a baby peddler on the long-running daytime drama The Young and the Restless also brought her a new legion of fans. The critically hailed actress began her career as a nightclub singer selling out such famed venues as Brothers & Sisters and Reno Sweeney. Blessed with a rangy, powerful, emotion-filled voice, she has won acclaim for her interpretations of an eclectic array of material that ranges from Kurt Weill to Peter Allen and Tori Amos. Her singing, in fact, led to her first Broadway outing, the original musical Rachel Lily Rosenbloom and Don't You Ever Forget It. At age 21, Joseph Papp, the late founder of New York's Public Theater, took her under his wing and cast her in productions of Boom Boom Room and The Threepenny Opera; she earned a Tony nomination for her work in the latter, performing a devastating version of "Pirate Jenny" in the role originally created by Lotte Lenya. She would later appear on Broadway in The Little Prince and the Aviator and the National Actors Theatre's revival of Three Men on a Horse. Miss Greene, of course, is best known for her lovably ditzzy, comical and, ultimately, moving portrayal of the innocent flower shop worker with a heart of gold, Audrey, in both the original stage production (Drama Desk nominee for Outstanding Actress in a Musical) and the subsequent film of Little Shop of Horrors. Her film work also includes starring opposite Lenny Baker and Shelley Winters in Next Stop, Greenwich Village as well as roles in I'm Dancing as Fast as I Can, Talk Radio, Pump Up the Volume, Stepping Out, Fathers & Sons, The Professional/Léon, Jaded, One Fine Day, States of Control, The Cooler and Love Object, among others. Among her recent theatrical credits are the West Coast staging of Side Man and a sold-out weekend of performances as Miss Adelaide in the Hollywood Bowl's all-star staging of Guys and Dolls. London audiences will be familiar with Miss Greene's work in the original London production of Little Shop of Horrors at the Comedy Theatre to rave reviews, and then she recreated her Audrey for the screen at Pinewood Studios. More recently in London, she was seen in her much-acclaimed solo show Torch!, which she has performed on both sides of the Atlantic. Miss Greene was also honored to perform for the Queen in the Cameron Mackintosh salute, Hey, Mr. Producer. Miss Greene just finished Betwixt in the West End with Stevie Webb and Ashley Gray. Her debut solo CD, In His Eyes, was named the vocal recording of the year by Playbill Magazine.

THEA KANO, Assistant Music Director

Dr. Thea Kano, a Northern California native, became active in the arts at an early age. She started playing piano at age four and began taking ballet soon after, a background that has a strong influence on her conducting. Dr. Kano's graceful yet commanding presence on stage and the robust performances she obtains from her musicians have basis in her formal training as a dancer.

In 2005 Dr. Kano founded the New York City Master Chorale and has served as its artistic director since its inception. The 60-member group is recognized as one of the finest vocal ensembles in New York City and has performed to sold-out audiences on two continents. Dr. Kano is known for her expressiveness and dynamic conducting and the Chorale has been praised for its balance and richness in tone in performing a variety of musical styles. Under her direction, the Chorale made its debuts at Lincoln Center (2006) and Carnegie Hall (2009), as well as its international debut in Paris, France (2011).

In addition to her work with the New York City Master Chorale, Dr. Kano has conducted an extensive range of repertoire with the Angeles Chorale, The Washington Chorus and the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC, for which she serves as assistant music director and directs its acclaimed chamber ensemble, Rock Creek Singers. Dr. Kano has prepared choruses for Zubin Mehta, Esa-Pekka Solonen, Emil de Cou, David Hayes, Craig Fleischer, Victor Vener and Paul Salamunovich. Dr. Kano's various ensembles have performed at the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Disney Hall, Église Saint-Sulpice (Paris) and on the National Mall for the 2009 inaugural ceremonies.

A champion of music education, Dr. Kano has devoted countless hours to students of all ages and backgrounds. She believes in the power of music to nurture and believes that classical music should be accessible to all. Dr. Kano's substantial experience in this arena includes: building partnerships with organizations serving disenfranchised adults, hosting workshops with at-risk youth, leading youth arts programs of all sizes, as well as directing award-winning high school and collegiate choruses.

Dr. Kano received her doctorate in choral conducting from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2004. At UCLA, Dr. Kano studied under Donald Neuen, her professional mentor. For her dissertation on Duruflé's Requiem, Dr. Kano completed research with L'Association Duruflé in Paris and studied privately with Paul Salamunovich. Dr. Kano holds a Master of Music degree from UCLA and a bachelor's degree in choral music education and piano performance from Arizona State University.

Dr. Kano speaks French and actively conducts ensembles in New York City, Paris and Washington, DC.

WHO'S WHO

CRAIG CIPOLLINI, Director and Choreographer

Originally from Baltimore, MD, Craig Cipollini began dancing at the age of 14. He received his bachelor's degree from Towson University, majoring in theater and art. He has an extensive background in theater, primarily musical theater, having performed all over the East Coast. WHO'S WHO

THEODORE GUERRANT, Principal Accompanist

Now in his 29th season as GMCW's principal accompanist, "Dr. Teddy" began his musical life in his native College Park, Georgia, with piano lessons from his mother at age three, an Atlanta television appearance at age four on Freddie Miller's Stars of Tomorrow and formal piano lessons with Regina Pudney at age five. At age 11 he began organ lessons with his then next door neighbor, Frank Willingham. By the time he was a senior in high school at Woodward Academy and studying piano with his aunt, Eliza Holmes Feldmann, then artist-in-residence at Brenau College in Gainesville, Georgia, Teddy was accompanying five choral groups and playing five church services every week. He went off to colleges with various scholarships and assistantships and eventually earned five degrees in keyboard performance (three in piano, one in harpsichord and one in organ) from the Universities of Georgia, Wisconsin and Maryland, as well as the Peabody Conservatory. He spent an idyllic summer in England studying piano with Denise Lassimonne in 1984, and ultimately settled down to juggle the six part-time positions he presently holds as organist-choirmaster at Saint Margaret's Episcopal Church (Washington); associate organist at Saint Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church (Hyattsville); accompanist/rehearsal assistant for the Central Maryland Chorale, the National Philharmonic Chorale at Strathmore Hall and GMCW; and coach-accompanist in the University of Maryland School of Music where, among a wide variety of duties, he leads graduate students through their comprehensive exams, works with the resident faculty and artists such as Evelyn Lear, and accompanies his other men's chorus, UMen. In his spare time, Dr. Teddy works at maintaining a century-plus old home in Laurel, Maryland's historic district and several keyboard instruments older than his house.

OVATION SOCIETY

The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC's

The Gay Men's Chorus of Washington's Ovation Society is an initiative that recognizes and honors those generous individuals and families who have made planned gifts to the Chorus.

If you have already included GMCW in your estate plans, please let us know so that we can include you as a member of the Ovation Society. If not, we hope you will consider joining this special group by including GMCW in your will, as a beneficiary of a retirement account or by setting up a charitable trust. Planned gifts can greatly reduce the amount of tax paid by your estate at the time of your death and often do not change the amount that would go to your family and friends.

While your attorney or accountant can provide you with more information, GMCW has several corporate sponsors – both financial planners and attorneys – who specialize in LGBT estate issues. We are happy to share this resource list with you upon request.

As a member of the Ovation Society, you will also be invited to attend special events and receptions especially for Ovation Society members.

For further information about GMCW's Ovation Society or if you are interested in learning more about the many ways you can include GMCW in your plans, please contact Executive Director David Jobin at 202-293-1548 or DJobin@GMCW.org.

RICHARD

Book, Lyrics and Music by Richard O'Brien
Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French

"Don't Dream It. Be It!" GMCW presents an all-male version of the wild and untamed gender-bending cult musical! There is a light over at the Frankenstein place, which leads an unsuspecting couple into the jowls of an alluringly salacious, sweet transvestite. Dr. Frankenfurter has been making a man...with blonde hair and a tan... and he's in hot pursuit of pleasure with songs that will have every fan dancing in the aisles.

PARTNERS IN HARMONY PROGRAM

The branch of the GMCW that "champions gay equality" includes honoring and promoting others whose mission enhances and complements our own. In a world where religious leaders and their organizations have too often embodied the oppression and rejection that many of us have suffered, we rejoice to notice the growing number of synagogues, congregations, churches and other religious organizations that welcome, enfold and celebrate LGBT persons.

Sometimes at great risk to the respect and support of their own traditions, sometimes in prophetic leadership roles in their communities, sometimes as quietly and naturally as living out their core values, these groups are a rich source of meaning, community, service and worship for many of our singers and audience members.

We celebrate that we perform in the Washington, DC metropolitan area TOGETHER IN HARMONY with these colleagues in several faith traditions.

We proudly list them here as our PARTNERS IN HARMONY. We recommend them to any who are looking for a faith community to call home.

Visit OUTREACH at gmcw.org for links to all of these religious groups.
